

Welcome to the August edition of the CIS Newsletter focussed on UK Dairy Day taking place on Wednesday 14th September 2016 from 8am to 5pm at the International Centre in Telford, Shropshire.

This year's event is FREE entry and car parking. No pre-registration is required, simply just turn up, receive a wrist band and enter the venue through the multiple entry points on site.

UK Dairy Day

Statement from Richard Jones,
Chief Executive of Holstein UK.

"Holstein UK acted on behalf of its members and the dairy industry to ensure that there was a dedicated dairy event held in the UK every September. We are determined that UK Dairy Day will continue to showcase the very best of British dairying and feature all cattle breeds from all over the UK. The one day event is tailored for the dairy sector and has established itself as the leading event for dairy farmers to network, meet industry suppliers, share knowledge, innovations and ideas – and this will continue until at least 2020.

In response to recent speculation surrounding RABDF and Livestock Event, with plans to change the date of this event to early September, Holstein UK can confirm that discussions with RABDF have occurred, but there are many issues to be resolved before any joint activity can be confirmed. Our foremost priority is to protect our members and the financial security of Holstein UK and the current framework for UK Dairy Day already achieves this very successfully.

SHARE KNOWLEDGE AND INNOVATION AT UK DAIRY DAY

With just over one month to go, plans for the UK's premier dairy event, UK Dairy Day are really taking shape. Returning to the show this year is the 'Sharing Knowledge' zone.

This dedicated area includes two seminar areas running from 10am to 4pm, with a captivating line-up of speakers who will be stimulating thought and debate. Listen to cattle lameness expert

Roger Blowey as he discusses findings relating to the 5 Point Plan for Control of Digital Dermatitis. At a time of tight margins the promotion of your team, the business and commercial offer is vital to staying ahead of the field. With this in mind Anglia Farmers will be presenting on the importance of marketing.

CATTLE SHOW

UK Dairy Day 2016 will showcase leading breeds and breeders, with the show ring being the centrepiece of the event overlooked by the principal partner trade stands. For the first time in its 3-year history, dairy farmers across the UK can show their cattle free of charge in all classes at UK Dairy Day 2016 thanks to a partnership between with the UK's largest agricultural purchasing group, Anglia Farmers Limited.

The cattle show will featured classes for Ayrshire and Dairy Shorthorn judged by Michael Broadley. Classes for Brown Swiss and Jersey judged by Robert Hunter. The National Holstein Show will be judged by Giuseppe Quaini.

PRINCIPAL SPONSORS OF UK DAIRY DAY 2016

"UK Dairy Day goes from strength to strength and is now the key dairy event in the UK to be attending. The event offers a great business focussed environment for the dairy industry where you can meet all relevant parties under one roof in one day ahead of the busy winter period. If you're serious about the future dairy industry, you can't afford to miss it,"

Ian Simpson, NWF Agriculture Ltd.
